

WATERFRONT II CONDOMINIUM RULES & REGULATIONS

WELCOME TO THE WATERFRONTS II; A VACATIONLAND COMMUNITY

PLEASE REFRAIN FROM MAKING DISTURBANCES AT ALL TIMES. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE AND LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGE TO THE FACILITIES, OTHER RESIDENTS, OCCUPANTS, OR PROPERTY RESULTING FROM YOUR ACTIONS.

Occupants of units and their guests may utilize the recreational areas provided by Waterfronts II. As for those who own a fractional interest in a unit, their access to the recreational areas is limited to the time period specified by the deed and they must be occupying a unit.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THESE RULES & REGULATIONS WILL RESULT IN EVICTION, PENALTY ASSESSMENTS, AND/OR REMOVAL OF PROPERTY IN VIOLATION.

1. No boats, trailers, campers, vehicles larger than a van frame, snowmobiles, or personal watercrafts are permitted on the premises. The beach (east side, outside buoys) is accessible by personal watercraft during daylight hours, no overnight storage is allowed. No vehicle storage, repair, or maintenance is permitted on the premises. Vehicles must be parked between the marked lines. Motor vehicles may not be parked in entrance way areas, fire lanes, grass, or lawn areas, nor in any area not specifically designated for parking. Any of the above found in violation of the Rules & Regulations may be towed and stored at owner's expense in addition to any other assessments imposed.
2. All vehicles MUST DISPLAY PROPER PARKING PERMITS. Tow warnings will be issued if permits are not obtained, vehicles will be towed and stored at owner's expense.
3. All landings and stairways (front & back) are to be free of any articles (rafts, toys, bikes, etc.). These areas are not to be used as playgrounds.
